

News Letter

On the 14th March 2001 the New section 203A of the Companies Ordinance came into effect.

The new section 203A allows the Registrar to strike from the register of companies any company which has not filed annual returns since before the 1st January 1993 without recourse to the notification procedure of section 267.

The name of any company to be struck off under section 203A will be published in:-

- The 7th Supplement to the Gibraltar Gazette
- Companies House Web site “companieshouse.gi” Notice Board section; or
- May be view at The Registry, 317 Main Street, Gibraltar.

1st October 2001