

COMPANIES HOUSE

Important Notice

25th April 2016

Reinstatement of Companies struck off under the Companies Act 1930

Following the judgment issued on the 23rd of March 2016 in Claim No: 2015-COMP-23 in the matter of Tasmania Investments Ltd (“the Judgment”), an appeal to the Judgment was heard on the 20th of April 2016 by the Court of Appeal.

It will be remembered that as a result of the Judgment, Companies House Gibraltar ceased to proceed with any company reinstatement where the company was struck off under the Companies Act 1930 (“the 1930 Act”).

Following the ruling of the Court of Appeal in relation to the Judgment, and subject to section 33(2) of the Interpretation and General Clauses Act, it will now be possible to apply under the provisions of the 1930 Act for the reinstatement of any company where the company was struck off under the 1930 Act.

To further clarify, where a company was struck off under section 267A or section 331 of the 1930 Act, an application to reinstate such a company shall be made under section 332(1) of the 1930 Act. The reinstatement shall then proceed under the provisions of the 1930 Act as if the repealing Act had not been passed.